

Kristi Braskett, CPA

Consultant

ABOUT KRISTI

A highly respected CPA, Kristi has over ten years of experience in accounting. Before Kaiser Consulting, she held several accounting positions with progressive responsibility at a Fortune 500 company, where she developed an expertise in cost accounting and financial analysis. She also has extensive experience with SAP and has provided support for system implementations and employee training.

Kristi has a proven track record of providing solid and dependable accounting assistance to her clients through her in-depth understanding of general accounting functions, including financial reporting, month-end close, and the reconciliation process. She is capable of quickly adapting to any team and providing valuable insight into business process challenges. Her demonstrated ability to apply her strong working knowledge has been beneficial in a variety of projects such as master data management and Sarbanes-Oxley compliance.

With her excellent analytical and problem-solving skills, Kristi is a valuable asset to any Kaiser Consulting engagement.
